The Kala Brand Ukulele company was founded only in 2005, however, it has become a major producer with over 150 models across the entire spectrum of the ukulele world. As with most brands, the cheaper models are manufactured in China and the far east . The trademark quality models are finished, set up and many are manufactured in the USA.

Kala also embraces the budget Makala trademark best known for its starter Dolphin and Shark ukuleles and the U-Bass series which is the world leader in the bass ukuleles.
